Thought for the Week

PREPARED TO STAND ALONE

I am reading a book called 'Prepared to Stand Alone' by Iain H. Murray, which is a biography of J.C. Ryle. Murray says of J.C. Ryle that "from the beginning of his Christian life, he (J.C. Ryle) was convinced of the 'indispensable necessity of holiness of life, being the only evidence of a true Christian...the absolute need of coming out from the world and being separate from its vain customs, recreations, and standards of what is right". As Christians we must remember that we are called to live a holy life in Christ Jesus. That we have been called to live a life consecrated unto God. Sometimes that may mean we will lose friends, sometimes that may mean we may be frowned upon by the world. We are told to count the cost and I believe we must be 'prepared to stand alone' if that is what it costs us to live holy lives. For whatever the world may think about us and say about us will all fade away as we stand before our mighty and holy God and declares to us "Well done good and faithful servant.. enter into the joy of your master".

Blessings,
Harrison

Prayer Points

- Pray for Judie Turner as she is having some health issues, receiving good care, but would appreciate our prayers.
- Pray for our upcoming AGM as a church and our leadership nominations, that we would seek God's guidance in this
- Pray for our breakfast ministry on Monday mornings. Praise God that we have seen people come along to that, pray that they would sense the Holy Spirit and allow the volunteers to share the gospel with them
- Praise God for our Playgroup and the awesome job all the volunteers do. Pray that there would be opportunities to invite these families to church or even to share the gospel.
