To know Christ and make Him known

See to it that no one repays evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue what is good for one another and for all. Rejoice always, pray constantly

"Pray without ceasing" (1Thessalonians 5:12-17)

Thought for the Week

The late Dr. Donald Barnhouse, the greatly admired American pastor and author, once came to the pulpit and made a statement that stunned his congregation. "Prayer changes nothing!" You could have heard a pin drop in that packed Sunday worship service in Philadelphia. His comment, of course, was designed to make Christians realise that God is sovereignly in charge of everything. Our times are literally in His hands. No human being, by uttering a few words in prayer, takes charge of events and changes them. God does the shaping, the changing; it is He who is in control. Barnhouse was correct, except in one minor detail. Prayer changes me. When you and I pray, we change, and that is one of the major reasons prayer is such a therapy that counteracts anxiety.

Prayer Points

- Pray for refreshment for our volunteers over this holiday break, and that they would come back feeling ready to continue to work to the glory of God
- Praise God for His sustaining power and upholding us as a church as we go through this waiting period of looking for God's man to be our next Senior Pastor
- Pray for the ongoing conflicts around the world in Israel, Ukraine, Yemen, Sudan, Afghanistan, Congo
- Pray for the Soccer Camp this week. That God would be preparing the kids to have soft hearts and giving the leaders the right words to speak, that we may see kids and families believe in the gospel which is the power of God unto salvation. Please also pray for good weather and the safety of the kids and that there would be no major dramas
- Pray for Trish and Lloyd as they visit a critically ill friend in Victoria

WEDNESDAY PRAYER MEETING

Our normal Wednesday prayer meeting will be taking a break over the school holidays, but will start back up again on 10th July at 9:00am. This time of prayer goes for an hour followed by a time of fellowship at the Coffee Club

HOTSHOTZ SOCCER CAMP

Our Soccer Camp begins tomorrow morning and will be running all week. This is an exciting week in our calendar. We have the awesome opportunity of sharing the gospel with 52 kids every morning for about an hour before we have fun, and connect, and build relationships with them all week. Hopefully and prayerfully they will then take the gospel message home to their families and we would see whole families believe in Jesus Christ.

MORNING TEA ROSTER

The Morning Tea Roster for the next 2 months is up on the kitchen noticeboard.
