Thought for the Week

"I think I hear some child of God saying, 'God has said, 'I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee,' but I am in great trouble; all the circumstances of my life seem to contradict the promise': yet, 'The mouth of the Lord hath spoken it,' and the promise must stand. 'Trust in the Lord, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.' Believe God in the teeth of circumstances. If you cannot see a way of escape or a means of help, yet still believe in the unseen God, and in the truth of his presence; 'For the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.' I think I have come to this pass with myself, at any rate for the time present, that when circumstances deny the promise, I believe it none the less. When friends forsake me, and foes belie me, and my own spirit goes down below zero, and I am depressed almost to despair, I am resolved to hang to the bare word of the Lord, and prove it to be in itself an all-sufficient stay and support. I will believe God against all the devils in hell, God against Ahithophel, and Judas, and Demas, and all the rest of the turncoats; yea, and God against my own evil heart. His purpose shall stand, 'For the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.' Away, ye that contradict it: ours is a well-grounded confidence, 'For the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.'"

By-and-by we shall come to die. The death-sweat shall gather on our brow, and perhaps our tongue will scarcely serve us. Oh that then, like the grand old German Emperor, we may say, "Mine eyes have seen thy salvation," and, "He hath helped me with his name." When we pass through the rivers he will be with us, the floods shall not overflow us; "For the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it." When we walk through the valley of the shadow of death we shall fear no evil, for he will be with us; his rod and his staff shall comfort us. "The mouth of the Lord hath spoken it." Ah! what will it be to break loose from these bonds and rise into the glory? We shall soon see the King in his beauty, and be ourselves glorified in his glory; for "the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it." "He that believeth hath everlasting life"; therefore a glad eternity is ours." - Charles Spurgeon

MISSION MATTERS

Care Outreach's mission is to give help and hope to people in outback NSW and Queensland. It is a mission that we as a church family support financially and practically; with people in our church travelling out west to visit families, others working in the warehouse and shop. With the flooding out west causing so much destruction, our church was happy to give $1000 for their disaster fund.

NEW MEMBERS

If you are interested in becoming a member of our church, there may still be time to organise this before next Sunday's meeting. Please see Bill to find out about membership and commence the membership process.

BAPTISM SUNDAY

We will be celebrating some baptisms on June 22. If you are interested in being baptised, please contact Bill.

ALPHA COURSE

Initial plans are being made to run an Alpha course in Term 3. Alpha explains the gospel to non-Christians, new Christians, or anyone wanting to refresh their love for Jesus. Please contact Bill if you would like to attend, invite a friend, or help out with meals or group discussions.

SOCCER HOME GAMES

At the moment we are in the thick of our soccer home games, having just had one yesterday, we now have 2 more (14th, 21st June). So if you are able to help out in any way, please put your name down on the roster in the gallery, we would love to have you come along and help out

BI ANNUAL MEETING JUNE 15TH

Just a reminder our Bi Annual members meeting will be held on Sunday June 15th after the service. You don't have to be a member to attend (only to vote)...we will have updates on the building plans and our ministries, plus the budget to approve, so please keep the date free.
